

Trustee Biography

Kathryn Prounis

Kathy Prounis is a New York City-based architectural interior designer with over twenty years' experience in residential and commercial design. She currently specializes in residential projects such as ones featured on the June 2014 cover of Hamptons Cottages & Gardens (HC&G) and in a September 2016 profile in The New York Times.

Prior to going into private practice, Kathy was an associate and studio head for Skidmore Owings and Merrill, where she oversaw large-scale commercial projects for corporate 500 clients. Her extensive portfolio of work includes corporate, hospitality, theatrical and government facilities.

A devoted advocate of the arts and education in New York, Kathy serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of the Museum of the City of New York, the Frederick A.O. Schwarz Children's Center Committee of the Museum of the City of New York, the Learning Through Art Committee for the Guggenheim Museum and the board of the Couture Council of the Museum at FIT. In addition, she actively supports various civic organizations such as the Horticultural Society and the Central Park Conservancy, and chairs the Lenox Hill Neighborhood House Spring Gala & Fall Associates Benefit as well as the Madison Square Boys & Girls Club Salute to Style Luncheon.

After having served as Patron for the Kips Bay Show House for several years, Kathy joined the Board of Trustees in January of 2017.
