Elizabeth Dexter

Lizzy Dexter is the owner of Elizabeth Dexter Interiors, an interior design firm she started in 2012 that specializes in high-end residential properties. She has worked on projects in Hawaii, Santa Barbara, New York, New Jersey, and Martha's Vineyard. Prior to starting her own firm Lizzy was a Design Partner at Cullman and Kravis, where she worked for eleven years. Lizzy began her career as an assistant teacher at the Brearley School where she taught first and second grade and was the high school tennis coach.

Lizzy graduated from Boston College in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business. She later received her Basic Interior Design Degree from the New York School of Interior Design. She is a graduate of the Hackley School in Tarrytown, NY.

Lizzy lives on the upper east side of Manhattan with her husband and two children. Her husband, David Rogers, is a portfolio manager at Soros Fund Management. Her daughter, Lilly Rogers, is a first grader at the Spence School and her son, Dylan Rogers, is in nursery school at The Episcopal School.

The family supports various educational institutions as well as Harlem Children's Zone (a program that helps to address the needs of the entire child through offering exceptional education and social services), The Children's Village (which provides a safe haven, services, and caring community for troubled children), and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Lizzy was welcomed onto the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club Board of Trustees in May 2016.

Lizzy and her family spend summers and many weekends in Madison, CT where Lizzy is an active member of the tennis community. Lizzy is a dedicated mother and volunteer at each of her children's schools. In her free time she enjoys cooking and entertaining for family and friends.
